

Third Ordinary Session of the Sixth Academic Year

The Third Ordinary Session of the Sixth Academic Year was held on Saturday, 6 June 1942. After commemorating Prof. Noyons, the Academicians presented their scientific communications. The President, Fr. Agostino Gemelli, then sent a postulatory letter to the Holy Father on behalf of the Pontifical Academy of Sciences, requesting that Saint Albert the Great become the Patron of scholars of physical-natural or experimental disciplines.